

The Bloomfield Citizen.

WATSESSING AND FRANKLIN DISTRICT AFFAIRS.

Walter Higgins is confined to his home by illness.

Wm. Ashcroft has laid in a large stock of goods.

Walter Elliot contemplates purchasing a new house.

Wm. Wilson sustained severe injuries in a fall Wednesday morning.

Wm. Law, who has been sojourning in Virginia, has returned home.

Wm. Morton has completely recovered from his dental operation.

Wm. Street is a very crowded place during the morning and evening hours.

Wm. Wilson left home suddenly on Wednesday. He has not put in his appearance.

Wm. A. McFarland opened his new cigar store Wednesday. He will doubtless be a success.

The services at the First Presbyterian Church tomorrow will be especially appropriate to Christmas.

The annual election of trustees of the Watseessing M. E. Church, will not take place until the 27th of January.

The Sunday School of the First Presbyterian Church will hold their Christmas celebration on Wednesday evening.

The Myrtle Association will hold their annual meeting at the Alpine rooms on Prospect street, Wednesday evening the 28th.

There is a good location for a shoe store on Mr. Dodd's building on Dodd St. This is a branch of trade not yet represented in this district.

Wm. Freeman's name has been added to the list of possible candidates for town committee from this district at the Spring elections.

George Wilde's energy in presenting to the people of this neighborhood such a fine display of holiday goods is being appreciated. George is doing a good trade.

Frank S. Benson was at Watseessing last Saturday. His attention was called to the dead-end spot which is the base of all Watseessing mothers who wheel baby carriages.

An exciting hog chase was witnessed at the farm of Michael Noll on Monday. It was a slaughter day. One of the animals escaped, but it was finally shot by John Noll.

There is a good chance for an enterprising party with a couple of hundred dollars to go into business in Watseessing. Mr. Everett Provost is looking for a business partner.

Mr. Samuel Elliot, who is famous for his high-class musical performances, can take a back seat. Another prominent gentleman hears of the palm. We promised to tell the story.

A batch of news from this district would hardly be complete without some reference to Wm. Cook. That gentleman enjoys himself examining the pretty toys in Wilde's store.

The Star of Bethlehem has created a keen interest among some of our fellow citizens here. One well-known lady is reported as rising at three o'clock in the morning to witness the beautiful star.

Why not organize a village improvement association in Watseessing? The providing of a $5 commutation rate to New York, a post office and a library building would furnish good material to work on.

Francis Law has spent considerable money in fixing the sidewalk along his property on Watseessing avenue. The work of a suitable crosswalk on Elliot street renders his work useless as the rain washes it away.

John Hyde is doing a thriving business in holiday luxuries. Doubtless if John would adopt some means of letting the public know just what he has on hand it would add to his trade. A word to the wise is sufficient.

The hat bosses were startled on Wednesday morning with a report that the well-known hatter, George J. Ferry, had been killed on the railway at Orange. Mr. Ferry is closely identified with the Watseessing business. Happily the report proved to be unfounded.

Thomas J. Flannery is deeply interested in the development of Watseessing. Mr. Flannery is a shrewd business man, and one that money spent in the erection of buildings suitable for workingmen is going to be a paying investment for some time to come.

The gentlemen who conduct the hat business in Watseessing should employ a man to keep the sidewalk clear from snow along Myrtle street. This would doubtless add much to the comfort of many young ladies. It would be a better way than having the town appropriate the money.

Members of Prospect Hose Company and Franklin District Improvement Association were doubtless highly amused over the story that has been circulated through the neighborhood to the effect that they intended celebrating the completion of the sewerage system with a torchlight parade. Any one acquainted with the state of feeling predominant in the minds of the members of these two organizations towards the system is well aware that no such thing was ever contemplated. One prominent gentleman's name was mentioned as standard-bearer. The humor to have inscribed on it Pro Bone Publico.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Monday, being Christmas, the evangelistic class will be held Tuesday evening, and the German class will hold no session the evening Wednesday as some desire to spend the holiday season from home.

To accommodate a larger number of people, the Bible class of the Branch will be held every Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, instead of Wednesday evening at 7, as was at first designed. Next Tuesday the first lesson will be taken up and a large number should attend.

Rev. W. F. Stubbart, D. D., will conduct the service at the rooms, Sunday at 11 A. M. For unto you is born this day in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. Luke 2: 11.

Christmas Celebrations.

The annual Christmas festivities of the First Baptist Church will take place to-night.

The children in the vicinity of the Plane attended a reception given by Santa Claus at Hope Chapel, last night.

The Silver Lake Sunday-school, of which Dr. J. Edward Stubbart is superintendent, will hold their Christmas entertainment on Friday evening, Dec. 30th.

Santa Claus who is over-pressed with business will not reach Berkeley Union Sunday School until Thursday evening. There will be a grand rally around the Christmas-tree on that night.

The usual interesting entertainment held on Christmas night at the Watseessing M. E. Church, will take place on Monday night. Santa Claus has sent in his letter of acceptance to the extended invitation.

The Sunday-school of the Park M. E. Church will hold their Christmas exercises on Wednesday evening the 28th inst. Special singing exercises, short addresses and a distribution of gifts will constitute the evening's exercises.

The Sunday School of St. Paul's P. E. Church will hold their Christmas festival on Wednesday night. Considerable money is annually spent in gifts at this school and the event is looked forward to with much eagerness by the children.

Bethel Presbyterian Sunday School anticipated Christmas by holding their celebration last night. Addresses, singing and the distribution of gifts to the children, made the evening a pleasant one for the children, their parents and friends.

The Christmas Bazaar which has been in progress Thursday and Friday evening at Union Hall, State street, and which is being held under the auspices of the ladies of the Church of the Sacred Heart, will be continued this evening, this being the closing night. Among the interesting and prominent features of the fair is the contest for a handsome gold badge to be presented to the for-man of the various fire companies receiving the highest number of votes. A valuable diamond ring will be awarded to the young lady receiving the highest number of votes.
